CONFIDENCE IN THE LORD

We are nearing the end of the liturgical year. Today's readings remind us that our own lives will draw to a close one day, and we can be certain that the Lord will encourage, strengthen, and save us—both now and at the last. The astonishing story of the Maccabees invigorates our faith as we behold an entire family willing to die rather than deny the Law of Moses. The psalm response echoes the faithful cries of the Maccabees: "I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God." That same confidence appears in Saint Paul's letter to the Thessalonians. "The Lord is faithful," he testifies; "he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one." In the Gospel, Jesus explains just how long God's protection will endure. The children of God whom God guards, Jesus says, will live forever like angels.

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

My steps have been steadfast in your paths,
my feet have not faltered.

I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God.

— Psalm 17:5-6a

CONFIANZA EN EL SEÑOR

Estamos cerca del fin del año litúrgico. Las lecturas de hoy nos recuerdan que nuestras vidas se acercarán a su final un día, y podemos estar seguros de que el Señor nos animará, fortalecerá y salvará, tanto ahora y al final. La asombrosa historia de los macabeos revitaliza nuestra fe mientras contemplamos a una familia entera dispuesta a morir en lugar de negar la Ley de Moisés. La respuesta del salmo hace eco a los gritos fieles de los macabeos "Te invoqué, y me respondiste, Señor". La misma confianza aparece en la carta de san Pablo a los tesalonicenses. "El Señor es fiel", él da testimonio, "él te fortalecerá y protegerá del maligno". En el Evangelio, Jesús explica por cuánto tiempo la protección de Dios perdurará. Los hijos de Dios a quien Dios cuida, Jesús dice, vivirán por siempre, como los ángeles.

Trigésimo Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Mis pies estuvieron firmes en tus caminos, y no vacilaron mis pasos.

Yo te invoco porque tú me respondes.

ARCHBISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

While we are doing great with the Annual Appeal, we are getting near to the end of the year and we would like to encourage anyone who has not yet made any of their contributions to please begin to do so now. Also if you are not up to date with your ongoing payments now would be a great time to get caught up. And, as always, thank you so much for your generosity in helping us to meet this financial obligation.

Si bien nos está yendo muy bien con la Apelación Anual, nos estamos acercando al final del año y nos gustaría animar a cualquier persona que aún no haya hecho ninguna de sus contribuciones para que comience a hacerlo ahora. Además, si no está al día con sus pagos en curso ahora sería un buen momento para ponerse al día. Y, como siempre, muchas gracias por su generosidad para ayudarnos a cumplir con esta obligación financiera.

Each Mass is celebrated for one special intention only. For specific dates, please send your request to the office at least 4 weeks in advance and include your phone number. Also let us know if the mass intention is for someone Living (L) or Deceased (D).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In the seventeenth century, English Catholics, many of them wealthy and well educated, looked to the American colonies as a place to regain a measure of religious freedom. In Ireland, the so-called penal laws were even harsher than in England, as a minority Parliament tried to force the conversion of the population by denying the majority political and economic power. Beginning in 1691, laws were passed that punished dissenters, principally Catholics, but also causing hardship for Jews, Quakers, and others. There were acts forbidding “mixed marriage” or sending children “beyond the seas” for schooling. Catholics were taxed at double the common rate, barred from the legal professions and from university, and not allowed to build churches or own a decent horse.

In 1793 the situation began to change, as it became clear that the economic persecution would not drive the majority away from Catholicism. Gradually, laws were repealed until by 1829 freedom was won, although Catholics at university were ineligible for honors, and until the 1920s when the Republic was formed, the Church of Ireland was the state church, funded by the taxes of all citizens.

PERSPECTIVE

We must often draw the comparison of time and eternity. This is the remedy of all our troubles. How small will the present moment appear when we enter that great ocean!

—St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

DON'T COMPLAIN

If Christians spent the same amount of time praying that they spend complaining, they'd have nothing to complain about!

St. John the Evangelist Pew Campaign

There are still opportunities for you to purchase plaques to remember or honor loved ones and family members in support of our Pew Campaign. You can drop a note into the offering basket or call the office to make your request. This is a wonderful way to honor a family name or member and offer support to the parish as well. Thank you for your consideration.

Donation amounts requested:

For a full 5 section pew $1,000.00 (or $250.00 per section). For a full 3 section pew (pews in front of the Day Chapel) $500.00 (or $250.00 per section). For your donation two 2" X 4" plates will be engraved with your message (one on each end of a pew or on each section).

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En 1769 los franciscanos bajo la dirección de fray Junípero Serra alzaron una cruz en Alta California, dedicando la primera misión en la zona a san Diego de Alcalá. Diego, cuya fiesta es el 13 de noviembre, fue un franciscano del siglo XV. Este santo español nunca fue sacerdote, prefiriendo servir a Dios como hermano lego (laico) ayudando a los pobres y cuidando a los enfermos.

Siempre fue un humilde servidor de los demás. Aun cuando lo hicieron guardián (líder franciscano) nunca dejó de servir a los pobres, los enfermos y a sus hermanos franciscanos. Su afán por dar a los pobres las cosas del convento lo llevaba a esconder sus donaciones en su manto. Una vez un hermano le preguntó que escondía y el mintiendo respondió: “rosas”. El hermano insistió verlas y en lugar de la comida que llevaba a los pobres, aparecieron rosas y más rosas. La santidad del patrón de San Diego, California se apoya sobre tres pilares: 1) solidaridad con los más necesitados, 2) devoción a Cristo crucificado y 3) evangelizar en unión con la Iglesia.

—Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Gluz, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

PERSPECTIVA

Frecuentemente debemos comparar el tiempo y la eternidad. Este es el remedio para todos los problemas. ¡Qué pequeño parecerá el momento presente cuando entremos en ese inmenso océano!

—Sta. Isabel Ana Seton

NO QUEJARSE

Si los cristianos pasaran rezando la misma cantidad de tiempo que pasan quejándose, no tendrían nada de que quejarse.
